You are invited to attend the 11th annual

South Carolina American String Teachers Association Violin and Viola Choir Workshop!

Join violinists and violists from across the state at Converse College and the beautiful Daniel Recital Hall. Beginner level violin and viola students will develop foundational playing and performance skills in a combined group. Intermediate and advanced students will play in two ensembles: with like instruments and in combined choirs. All rehearsals will be led by master clinicians from across South Carolina! The event will also include vendor exhibits for parents and students to explore, a guest performance for students, and an afternoon recital showcasing the students' hard work.
